Description

Provide a short description of the event and its activities.

Representatives of the Suwalki City Municipality and Suwalki Cultural Centre participated in the online project meetings organized before the event in and all organisational issues was discussed and established.

The group from Suwalki participated in the Midsummer celebration (St. Johns day in Rokiškis. The group consisted of:

- 27 artists from the Song & Dance ensemble Suwalszczyzna,
- 1 choreographer,
- 2 specialists from Suwalki Cultural Centre, www.soksuwalki.eu
- 2 representatives from Suwalki City Municipality (Head of Cultural & Sports Department and a Specialist at Mayors' Office, Social Communication and Promotion),
- 1 driver.

Total of 33 people.

The culture delegation and municipal delegation had partly separate programmes. On the first day artists had time for rehearsals and municipal delegation from Suwalki together with delegation from Cēsis and Rokiškis visited Residence of Salos Manor. They had lunch and a guided tour there.

In the afternoon Suwalki municipal delegation visited Rokiškis Public Library, meeting director and other staff.

Late afternoon all participants took part in the solemn procession to the place near the lake. It was the place of international concert "Cultural Archery Strengthens Unity and Security in Europe" (LT-LV-PL).

The Head of the Culture and Sports Department from Suwałki, together with representatives from Cēsis and Rokiškis conveyed greetings to the audience from the stage.

Artists performed they programme as part of the concert presenting traditional folk dances and songs.

At the evening all participants took part in the discussion on role of culture in fostering unity, security, a sense of belonging. A representative of Rokiškis Museum introduced the topic to the audience. The programme enriched a performance of a student playing the guitar.

Than all participants from 3 countries had integrational dinner, spent time dancing, singing and talking.

On the second day – after breakfast all fulfilled the evaluation form submitted by the organizers (QR code);

Than a guided tour was organized. The Suwalki group visited the Rokiškis Manor House, the Church of St. Matthew the Apostle and Evangelist and the historic centre.

The farewell and departure of the delegation from Rokiškis took place around 1:30 PM.
